TOWN ELECTION UPDATE

There are many important initiatives and races in the upcoming election. Additionally, while Mayor Cahill's name is on the ballot, he is not running for re-election. As a reminder, here is the email Mayor Cahill sent to Yarrow Point residents regarding the upcoming election:

Dear Residents of Yarrow Point,

It has been a pleasure and honor to serve as Mayor of Yarrow Point for the last 8 years. The 4th of July on Yarrow Point is one of my highlights each year and a beautiful example of the spirit and culture of all of you, the residents who call Yarrow Point their home. Last May, I signed up to run for a 3rd term of office, however in the past month, I realized my heart and passion are not at the level you deserve. It is with a heavy heart that I withdraw my name from the upcoming election.

Thank you,
Mayor Dicker Cahill

DOGS ON POINT: THE HALLOWEEN DOG SHOW

On Saturday, October 9th, residents Krya, Livia, and Brooke, 5th graders at Sacred Heart and St. Thomas, hosted a dog show. Their last show was in June and they decided to host a Halloween version as well.

Kyra had the idea to create this dog show and approached her friends Livia and Brooke about the idea. All three of them collaborated on this project and became good friends as a result. The girls also do horseback riding and do jumps, an aspect of their dog show.

The competition consisted of 3 showing divisions- Best Costume, Best Jumping, and a Talent competition. For the Halloween edition, the dogs that won were Griffey for talent, Whiskey for costume, and Charlotte and Luna tied for jumping.

The girls made a logo for their dog show as shown on the right.

YARROW POINT'S HALLOWEEN SPOOKTACULAR

After a year and a half in COVID quarantine, this year's Halloween was a treat. Even the weather was perfect. In the days leading up to Halloween, residents carved pumpkins and placed them on the town entry sign for all to see. Many residents decorated their homes with spooky skeletons and picture-perfect pumpkins. One house decorated their whole yard as a ship with an octopus and a sign saying "Walk the plank," while another had a strobe lit ghost staring at you from the window. It was a fun and spooky night!

SPECIAL REMINDERS

DRAINS- Please make sure drains on the street are clear. This time of year the leaves can clog up the drains and we want to prevent flooding.

SCHOOL BUSES- Now that kids are back in school, please follow the guidelines on the right about when to stop when encountering a school bus.

CHANGE YOUR CLOCKS- Daylight Savings Time ends on Sunday November 7th at 2am. Please remember to set your clocks back 1 hour.

EGG CARTONS- Thank you Yarrow Point for donating your empty egg cartons to the box located outside of Town Hall. So far over 1,000 cartons have been donated to the University District Food Bank. Keep it up!

NEW PATHWAY TO WATER ACCESS

The end of NE 42nd St. has been under construction as a new pathway has been put in place. The public lake access now has two new pathways which better allow residents to get to and from the lake.
